

Windham Independent, December 3, 2009

Windham Endowment Hosts a Night of Thanks

by Mary Ann Horaj (including photos)

The Windham Endowment for Community Advancement (WECA) hosted a Night of Thanks at the Searles School and Chapel on Friday November 20, 2009.

Speakers included Mindy Davis, Stacey Bruzzese, Diane Carpenter, and Kathleen DiFruscia. Diane Carpenter noted that the WECA is celebrating 5 years of support and thanked everyone for making this possible.

Attendees previewed "Crimes at the Castle" from the Mystery Dinner held at Searles Castle, while the cast and crew were celebrated for their excellent work. Video was created by Elliot Gould from "Render Edge Media," with the play was written by Windham pseudonym writer Anne Kelsey.

The Windham Endowment is a non-profit foundation created to enhance the quality of life for all Windham residents, now and for generations to come. For more information visit their website at www.windhamendowment.org or call 603-437-0686.

Kelley Gage (left) from the WECA speaks with Dee Deranian - Scout Master for Troop 266 and his wife Lianne.

Dr. Henry LaBranche and his wife Pam (center) with Mary Sadler.

Bob Skinner and his wife Pat at the event.

Bob Coole (left) shakes hands with Ron Coish, and Ruth Coole always with a nice smile.