

Windham Independent, December 31, 2009

WINDHAM COMMUNITY BAND MAKES A GIFT TO THE WINDHAM HIGH SCHOOL CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

Photo by Judy Howard

Several hundred residents enjoyed the Windham Community Band's Holiday Concert in the new Windham High School auditorium on a snowy, but beautiful Sunday afternoon.

Both the Concert and Swing Bands played a variety of holiday selections and favorites. During intermission, a delicious dessert buffet tantalized the taste buds of all present.

Thrilled to have a home in Windham for their concerts and with a deep desire to support fine arts in the community, during the intermission the Windham Community Band presented a gift of $2,500.00 to the Windham High School Capital Campaign.

This very generous gift will be used towards the purchase of an acoustical shell. The shell will bring specialty music like the flute ensemble, chamber music, and choral performances to the audience with a richer, more complete sound than smaller groups would otherwise be able to provide. It will also open up larger spaces in the high school like the gymnasium and cafeteria that normally would not be acoustically pleasing and allow those venues to be diversified in their use and bring sound closer to the audiences in those large spaces.

The Windham Community Band's gift shines a bright light on what it means to be a partner in community advancement. They, like the Windham Woman's Club before them, have embraced the high school as a community asset to be enjoyed by all and their gift is a tangible and meaningful way to show their commitment to its students and to the community.