

Courtesy of Windham Independent News

CASABLANCA

AT SEARLES CASTLE

The Windham Endowment for Community Advancement held its gala Casablanca event at Searles Castle on November 5th. The event was sponsored by DeLuca Family of Dealerships, DiFruscia Law Offices, Waterhouse Country Store, Bank of America and Edward N. Herbert Assoc. Raffle items included a Kindle, a 42 inch flat screen television, dance lessons and a More Space Place closet makeover. Raffle items were donated by All About You Salon, The Boston Bruins, Breton Photography, The Carpenter Family, Chuck and Margaret Crisler, Don Zimmer and the Mollica Family, Final Details Marketing & Design, Happy Feet Dance Studio, Krystal Ballroom Dance Studio, The Manchester Monarchs, Jeff and Bea Martin, More Space Place of Salem, The Scannell Family, Shabby Chic, Cyclones Arena, Tom Zapalla, Tuscan Kitchen, Waterhouse Country Store and Windham Historic Commission. For more information about The Windham Endowment, please visit their website at: www.windhamendowment.org

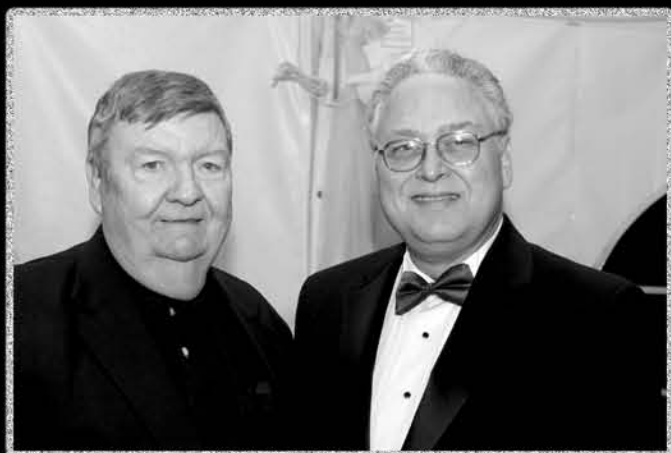

Peter Griffin accepts the Community Advancement Award on behalf of the Windham Historic Commission

Attending members representing Windham Endowment (alphabetically): Tom Barstow, Travis Blais, Stacey Bruzzese, Bill Carboni, Diane Carpenter, Anthony DiFruscia, Bev Donovan, Kelley Gage, Peter Griffin, Bill Hutchings, Bea Martin, Tim Skwiot, Kevin Waterhouse and Stephanie Wimmer

Windham Endowment's Stacey Bruzzese and NECN News Anchor Mike Nikitas, the event's emcee

Dick Forde and Kevin Waterhouse

Soleil Salon & Spa's Nicole Hajali and Joanna Maria

Judi Carboni and Bev Donovan in the background

Barbara Coish runs the roulette table

Marc and Karen DiFruscia

John Doherty and Clare Macoul

Jon and Jennifer Colvin

